W. S. GREGORY, our Foreman, is authorized to receive and contract for Job work &c., for THE MESSENGER office.

JIMMIE, a little son of John McCombs, fell from a fence last Saturday and broke his arm.

ONE of our Editors went to the Camp Meeting last Sunday and has been very absent minded since.

CAPT. J. W. KIRK paid our office a visit this week. He commences soon the work of grading the Greenville and Laurens Rail Road.

MRS. ELWELL, who has been visiting friends in the lower part of the State returned home yesterday.

Our officient Rail Road Agent, Mr. Gignilliat, made a flying trip to Atlanta last week. It is needless to say that his benign countenance was missed.

EASLEY is certainly "spreading her ample folds." Look at the new houses that have been erected, and others are rapidly going up. What a mark of improvement!

If you want to see something extra in the shape of a Monument, be sure to call at the Shop of T. L. Jones, in the fork between Pendleton and Augusta Streets, Greenville, S. C. He is certainly a "boss workman".

MRS. R. McMAHAN, died at the residence of Rev. J. D. Talley, on the morning of the 9th. She was about 83 years old, and had been a great sufferer for some time.

MR. GEORGE GOSSETT, a young man of much promise, died at the home of his father, Pinckney Gossett, on the 9th inst, aged 22 years.

He was a quiet and moral young man, possessing the esteem and respect of all acquainted with him. His remains were interred at Antioch Methodist Church on Wednesday, Rev. S. P. H. Elwell officiating in the funeral obsequies.

To the families of the above we extend our deepest sympathy.

ONE of our town darkies was on a spree last Sunday. We had hoped the experience that some of them had a few Sundays ago—from letting whiskey dethrone their reason—would have put an end to Sunday sprees which have been too common in the past.

MR. G. W. BOWEN has moved his quarters from Greenville back to Easley. He says there is no place in the world he likes so much as the latter. His health is improved, and strange to say, he looks young yet. He will be glad to have his friends call on him at the store of Hudgens & Hudgens.

New Advertisements.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to the advertisements which appear in this issue. When you read them you will certainly conclude that Easley is a live place, and her merchants are thrifty and energetic. They are men, who for their enterprise, merit no small amount of praise. You need no introduction to them.

W. M. Hagood & Co. have been here a long time. They are men of experience and tact, and they deal too in Cotton.

Hudgens & Hudgens are old men at the wheel, and they turn it well. They are Cotton buyers, too.

Robinson & Wyatt have tied up too many bundles to be new hands at the business.

Dr. J. W. Quillian has pounded too frequently with his pommel not to know how to use it.

Ownbey Bros. have handled too many fine groceries, &c., not to know their taste and how to sell them.

A. M. Runion has handled too great a plurality of bedsteads, tables, chairs, &c., to fail to realize their comfort in households and offices.

J. M. Rampey has dealt too extensively in dress goods as to miss in suiting you.

C. P. Runion has had too much dealing with the public as not to know it's want, and he is a Cotton buyer too.

H. J. Gignilliat, besides knowing how to handle guano successfully, understand the art of selling lime.

If you are in any way interested about something to eat, call on W. A. Mann and purchase some of his fine wheat.

James Rosemand, whose reputation as a Blacksmith, is a fine one, is well qualified to give all satisfaction.

Ohio has gone Democratic by a majority of twelve thousand. Gov. Hoadly has been made the choice of the people.

Camp Meeting Notes.

MR. EDITOR: The Camp meeting at Twelve Mile, in this County, began on Friday night last. The writer left Easley, at a late hour Saturday morning, and after a drive of two and a half hours through the mud, drew up at the Camp-ground just in time to get dinner with a good brother. At 2 o'clock the Presiding Elder called the Quarterly Conference together to look after the business and finances of the Pickens Circuit. The preacher in charge reported some sixty odd additions to the Church during the last Quarter and seven Sunday Schools in operation on the Circuit. There was paid for the support of the preacher for last quarter $159.50. Some of the churches are behind with their assessments for their preacher's support, but promised to pay out before the close of the year, and doubtless will, as Rev. Ellwell is popular with his people and this closes his 4th year among us. Many are sorry to give him up, knowing his place will be hard to be supplied among us. The preaching was good. On Saturday night many came to the altar for prayer and the Church seemed much revived. At an early hour Sunday morning the people began to pour in horse-back, foot-back, in their wagons, buggies and carriages. Our little town was well represented, and all seemed to enjoy themselves. At eleven o'clock Rev. Herbert preached a Missionary sermon to a large and attentive congregation, after which there was a collection taken up for Missions, amounting to something over fifty dollars. In the afternoon there was short talks made to the children and young people by Revs. Wood, Guess, and Elwell, after which the large congregation began leaving for their homes. The crowd was estimated to be the largest ever assembled at 12 Mile. The order was perfect, nothing to mar the pleasantness of the occasion, which speaks well for our people. We left the ground feeling that it was pleasant to go up and worship with the people of Twelve Mile, and hoping that we might live long enough to enjoy many such seasons.

Mr. Editors I wish you much success in your new field and hope that our people will patronize your paper liberally.

Inasmuch as certain foreign governments have charged that the hog products of the United States are affected with disease, and not proper for export purposes, the president has appointed a committee to investigate the curing of pork in this country.
